

Harding University
Scholar Works at Harding

John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

9-21-1960

To: Charles Cheatham

John Allen Chalk

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Chalk, J. A. (1960). To: Charles Cheatham. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/595>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

Sept.21, 1960

Mr. Charles Cheatham
Box 142
Celina, Tennessee

Dear Charles:

I want you to know that my association with you last week was certainly enjoyable to me. In fact, I don't when I have enjoyed being in a meeting any more than I did the one at Celina. This was due wholly to you your interest.

I do hope that you will see fit to stay with those folks as long as you can. I can tell that the type of preaching and work that you do is exactly what they need. Even though your efforts will go largely unappreciated I feel that you are doing a great job there.

The brethren here were well pleased with your sermon Sunday morning. One of my lawyer-friends came around Tuesday and told me it was one of the best sermons he had ever heard.

Please express my gratitude to your wife for putting up with me so much. The meal she prepared and having me hanging around the house was some trouble to her I know. You are very fortunate to have such a good, godly woman but I am sure you are and have been aware of that for a long time. I hope we can all get together before too long. If you all are ever in town just for a little while do not fail to come by.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk